Rites of Passage

For parents & tweens 10-12 years of age
(boys and girls taught separately)

A four-week interactive course that prepares tweens for adolescence by generating an open dialogue in a fun and engaging environment and helps them to understand that they're not alone on the journey to growing up.

This course gives parents the foundation and necessary tools to communicate their personal values and beliefs. It also creates a close bond between parent and tween that will last into the future.

"Rites of Passage" is taught by a certified Birds and Bees Connection Educator from our copyrighted guidebooks. Parents attend all sessions; tweens attend all but the first session.

Some of the topics in Rights of Passage include:

- Puberty
- Hygiene
- Menstruation
- Nutrition
- Reproduction
- Self esteem
- Hormones
